Information Sought :	I am an Indian citizen. The right to information is a fundamental right. In 1976, in the Raj Narain vs the State of Uttar Pradesh case, the Supreme Court ruled that Right to information will be treated as a fundamental right under article 19 (1) of the Indian Constitution. The Supreme Court held that in Indian democracy, Indian Citizens are the masters and they have the right to know about the working of the Government which makes the Government and its functionaries more responsible and accountable. The powerful find the RTI Act upsetting for it gives citizens the right to question their arrogance. That is why they are trying to discredit this law by talking about its misuse repeatedly. Many eminent persons berate the RTI Act and say it should be limited. There is widespread acceptance that statements, books and works of literature and art are covered by Article 19(1)(a) of the Constitution, and any attempt to curb it meets with very stiff resistance. However, there is no murmur when users of RTI are labelled deprecatingly, even though it is covered by the same article of the Constitution. Further an information-seeker can only ask for what is on the record. If the records expose wrongdoing, it is silly to blame the RTI Act or citizens who use this law. THIS WOULD BE LIKE BLAMING MEDIA FOR SCAMS UNEARTHED BY IT. Therefore please provide me the following information from 1/7/2017 to 31/01/2023 for each financial year for 2017 -18 from
