Information Sought : I am an Indian citizen . I am one of the end user of services and buyer of goods amongst crores of Indians who are ultimately paying CENTRAL EXCISE(ON PETROL & DIESEL), GOODS AND SERVICE TAX /CUSTOMS DUTY (which is a milestone in the economics landscape of India)to the Union Government Of India. The right to information act was passed in the year 2005. This law empowers Indian citizens to seek any accessible information from a Public Authority and makes the Government and its functionaries more accountable and responsible. It is to mention here that the Independence Day is one of the most significant day in the Indian History. After a freedom struggle of almost 100 years, India could attain freedom and to commemorate the above day it is declared as national holiday. Similarly, 26th January is another significant day for the nation on which day the people of India have resolved to constitute India as a sovereign democratic republic on which day the constituent assembly adopted, enacted and gave to the people of India. National Days must be reckoned as opportunities to kindle the flame of nationalism, patriotism and constitutional idealism and as occasions to introspect and rededicate to the ideals that India stands for. They must look around in the neighbor hood and realize their great advantage of remaining citizens of a democratic country. These are occasions to be proud that we are Indians.
